

Americans are dreamers and we are no different at WATCHMAN. In 2011, our Qualified FEI stallion Fugitivo XII was recruited by U.S. Para Equestrian Team member Susan Treabess, fresh from international competition at the WEG, to be her partner in her quest to compete at the 2012 Paralympics in London.

We know it takes more than talent, hard work, and focus to achieve such big dreams. That is why, this year only, WATCHMAN is reducing Fugitivo's stud fee to $1800 and inviting all breeders who want a 2012 booking to donate the fee to the USPEA to support this promising team. All monies earned will be used to defray their expenses and are tax deductible through the USPEA.
